Waiting for Gainey

Written by Paul Braunstein & Courtenay Stevens
Directed by Kim Blackwell
June 29 – July 24

Waiting for Gainey is a funny, fast-paced and deeply Canadian love letter to hockey. Filled with the characters, rituals, rivalries and absurdities of minor hockey, the play celebrates our national obsession with the game and the families who spend countless hours in cold arenas chasing a dream. At its heart are young players determined to make it to the big league—and parents willing to do almost anything to help them get there. Warm, hilarious and ultimately moving, Waiting for Gainey celebrates everything Canadians love about hockey while taking a clear-eyed look at the pressures, sacrifices and darker side of the game.

The Legend of Pearl Hart

Written by Maja Ardal
Directed by Anita La Selva
August 3 - August 28

The Legend of Pearl Hart brings the excitement and danger of the Wild West to the Winslow Farm in the remarkable true story of Canadian-born outlaw Pearl Hart. Featuring horses, circus performers, adventure and Pearl's infamous stagecoach robbery, the play follows her extraordinary journey from Ontario to the American West at the end of the nineteenth century. Fiercely independent and determined to make her own way in a world dominated by men, Pearl became one of the most notorious women of the Wild West. This spirited theatrical adventure explores the woman behind the legend and her determination to live life on her own terms.
