I FEEL VERY LUCKY TO BE SITTING IN MY OFFICE, in Millbrook, writing this letter to you. It does not matter that it is presently snowing, again! I can feel the sun shining on my face today. There is much to celebrate in the simple act of writing the 2022 brochure letter. First, we have a summer season planned and therefore a reason to send you this brochure.

Secondly, 2022 will mark our 30th Anniversary Season. We are one year delayed to celebrate. We are excited to mark this important milestone this summer. We have a number of special events planned, giving us a chance to both look back and forward.

Robert and I are thrilled to be presenting two world premieres. This letter can be summed up by one word: FINALLY!

In July, we will present Alex Poch-Goldin's The Great Shadow, directed by Cynthia Ashperger. Hollywood is coming to Trenton, Ontario and hilarity will ensue. If you liked Alex's plays, The Right Road to Pontypool and The Bad Luck Bank Robbers, you will love this one.

And in August check out Maja Ardal's Wishful Seeing, based on Janet Kellough's book of the same name. There has been a murder on Rice Lake, and 4th Line Founder Robert Winslow will be on hand to find the killer. I will be directing this moody thriller.

Two very different plays, that at their core celebrate the lives of people from small towns; people with big dreams.

We hope you have missed us as much as we have missed seeing you. Robert and I invite you to the Farm in 2022, to once again sit under the blue skies of an Ontario summer and experience the very best of what we do - creating epic Canadian theatre. We plan to relish every second of this summer.

THE GREAT SHADOW

Written by Alex Poch-Goldin
 Directed by Cynthia Ashperger
 Musical Direction by Justin Hiscox
 Costume Design by Laura Delchiaro
 Set Design by Esther Vincent
 Fight Direction by Edward Belanger
 Choreography by Bill Coleman

Production sponsored by
 CIBC Wood Gundy – The Pyle Group

Robert Winslow & Shelley Simester, Queen Marie, 2012 by Wayne Eardley, Brookside Studio

Set in the roaring 20s, the stars of the silver screen are heading to Canada as Trenton, Ontario embarks on a quest to become Hollywood North. Sparks fly in this world premiere, when small-town Ontario residents collide with the Hollywood elites. From Alex Poch-Goldin, the playwright who brought you The Right Road to Pontypool and The Bad Luck Bank Robbers, The Great Shadow is a raucous comedy, packed with romance and intrigue in the golden age of film.

JUNE 28 - JULY 23

30TH ANNIVERSARY SEASON OPENING NIGHT:
 Saturday, July 2, 2022

Tuesdays to Saturdays at 6 pm

WISHFUL SEEING

Written by Maja Ardal
 Directed by Kim Blackwell
 Starring Megan Murphy & Robert Winslow
 Musical Direction by Justin Hiscox
 Costume Design by Korin Cormier
 Fight Direction by Edward Belanger
 Choreography by Madison Sheward

Production sponsored by Trinity College School and IG Wealth Management

Rachel Brittain, Welcome Death, 2009 by Wayne Eardley, Brookside Studio

Wishful Seeing, based on the novel of the same name by Janet Kellough, published by Dundurn Press, tells the story of saddlebag preacher Thaddeus Lewis, who stumbles upon a murder mystery on the shores of Rice Lake in 1853. A historical thriller with a colourful cast of characters, reminiscent of the popular CBC television series "Murdoch Mysteries," this world premiere from Maja Ardal, writer of the sell-out hit The Hero of Hunter Street, is sure to become a 4th Line classic.

AUGUST 2 - 27

OPENING NIGHT:
 Thursday, August 4, 2022

Tuesdays to Saturdays at 6 pm

FESTIVAL FRIDAYS

Back by popular demand! An outdoor festival that runs all summer long on Friday evenings at the Farm. Join us before the show to check out both savoury and sweet offerings from local culinary partners who will be setting up tents and booths to sell their products. Bring your taste buds along as there will be lots of delicious ready-to-eat food available!

Each Friday we will be offering Artist Talks from 4 pm to 4:30 pm, and expert presentations from 4:30 pm to 5:15 pm under the white tent, affording audience members the opportunity to enrich their visit to the theatre. Visit the "Festival Fridays" page listed under "What's On" on our website at 4thlinetheatre.on.ca for complete details, including a schedule of Artist Talk speakers and presentations.

LOCAL MUSIC SHOWCASE

New at the Farm in 2022 - On several Wednesday evenings before the show from 4 pm to 5 pm, we will feature music under the tent in the picnic area recorded by local songwriters and musicians. Pre-purchase a charcuterie snack box, grab some BBQ, or bring your own food and enjoy the summer scenery while listening to local tunes in our picturesque farm setting.

FAITH FORUMS

This round-table event series will include discussions on topics such as inter-faith dialogues and fellowship, how theocratic systems of government affect cultural identity, denominational differences within faith groups, religion versus religiosity, and religious melancholy and the experience of the dark night of the soul. Managing Artistic Director Kim Blackwell will host and moderate the forums.

Wednesday, August 10 & Wednesday, August 17
from 4 pm - 4:45 pm

30TH ANNIVERSARY SPECIAL PROGRAMMING

OPENING NIGHT GALA

Join us in celebrating our 30th Anniversary Season for a special Opening Night Gala before the show on Saturday, July 2nd. Featuring fresh farm-to-table culinary delights from Black Honey Catering; refreshing hard and soft drinks; a silent and live auction; a ticket to the show; and a post-show reception including a champagne toast with the cast and crew. Call our box office at 705-932-4445 or toll-free at 800-814-0055 for more information and to book your spot today. Tickets are $140 and are limited.

PODCAST SERIES

Tune in for a limited series podcast on the remarkable 30-year history of 4th Line Theatre. How did an overgrown farm and dilapidated barn become a thriving artistic community hub? We will chat with the folks that helped make the dream a reality. Hear from artists, directors, playwrights, musicians, community members and who knows, maybe even the livestock who stole the show! Bring your ears and join us for an audio journey and celebration of 4th Line Theatre. Episodes released weekly starting in May! To access the podcast on your device, visit www.4thlinetheatre.on.ca

THE 2022 YOUNG COMPANY

In partnership with Trent University's Trill College, we are excited to bring together a group of young, diverse regional artists and performers, who will work with industry professionals to produce hybrid in-person and livestream virtual play readings and performance pieces this summer. Stay tuned to our e-newsletters and website updates for more details.

CELEBRATING 30 YEARS
OF EPIC THEATRE

Thank you to Wayne Eardley, Brookside Studio, for 30 years of amazing photos and thank you to Rob Wilkes, Big Sky Design, for 30 years of brilliant design work—their creative work so beautifully captures the spirit of 4th Line Theatre!

PATRON INFORMATION

All summer performances are held outdoors at the Winslow Farm. Please wear appropriate footwear and dress for the weather. The Farm is open to the public on performance days only, starting at 4 pm.

Rain Policy: Shows are not cancelled prior to curtain time. You must arrive at the Farm for the performance. In the event that the performance is a rain-out, tickets will be exchanged, at no charge, for another performance (subject to availability). Preview tickets can be upgraded to regular price tickets for another performance date. If you do not arrive at the Farm for the performance and the show goes on, no exchanges will be permitted.

Ticket Exchange Policy: Tickets can only be exchanged with a minimum notice of 72 hours in advance and are subject to availability. A $3.00 per ticket exchange fee will apply. Members exempt.

Handling Fees: Service fees are included in our ticket prices. An additional $2.50 per order applies to online orders.

Refund Policy: There are no refunds. If an alternative date is not available, you may choose to return the tickets for a tax deductible donation receipt, equal to their value, or move your tickets forward by one year.

Tickets: Can be mailed to you up to two weeks prior to performance or picked up at the Farm after 4 pm on the performance night only. Tickets placed on hold will be released after fourteen days, if not purchased. A $2 charge will apply to mailed ticket orders.

Seating: Seating is by general admission on a first-come, first-served basis. Seats are provided. We suggest that you arrive at the Farm at least 30 minutes before the show starts. Please note that some seats will already be reserved for members, sponsors and group bookings. A significant number of the white chairs are reserved in advance. Patrons waiting in line will be made aware of how many seats are available in the house that are not reserved. Five minutes before each show if a VIP member has not arrived, their seats will be made available to the people waiting in line. You may want to bring a cushion for your added comfort. Both summer productions will be presented outdoors on the Barnyard Stage.

Accessible Seating: Please let us know, at the time of booking, if you require wheelchair access/assistance or if you have other special seating requirements. You will need to arrive 45 minutes before show time to ensure your seating request. We attempt to accommodate all requests; however we can only guarantee reserved seating for the person that requires it and, subject to availability, for one other person in the party.

Latecomers: Will be seated at a safe and appropriate point in the performance.

Concession and Picnic Area: Our licensed concession and picnic area opens at 4 pm; drinks and snacks are available. If you have pre-ordered a charcuterie snack box through us, you can pick it up here. You are welcome to bring your own picnic to enjoy before the show. Outside alcohol is not permitted at the Farm.

Children: Children under 5 years of age are not permitted in the theatre. All patrons need to present a ticket for entry to the performance.

Pets: Pets are not permitted at the Winslow Farm and cannot be left unattended in or around your vehicle.
