4th Line Theatre announces “Festival Friday Farmer’s Market” in July and August at the historic Winslow Farm

Millbrook, ON ... Looking to enjoy beautiful mornings in the countryside this summer? 4th Line Theatre is opening the historic Winslow Farm as they launch the first in a new series of events and activities “Nexicom Presents 4th Line Theatre @ the Farm”. Beginning July 3rd, guests are invited to participate in “Festival Friday Farmer’s Markets” where they can source local farm products and enjoy local food vendors’ wares.

As we are all beginning to ease back into the newly opening world around us, the team at 4th Line Theatre began looking for ways in which to safely engage local residents while promoting all of the amazing products and services that our local communities have to offer. With the decision made to postpone the 29th Summer Season, 4th Line wants to continue to welcome the community to the Farm, surrounded by breathtaking rolling hills and stunning views, to enjoy exceptional outdoor experiences beginning with the newly announced “Festival Friday Farmer’s Market.”

In the series of Friday morning markets beginning Friday, July 3rd and running until Friday, August 28th - 8 AM to 12 PM, local vendors will be spread out around the farm property with guests following a one-way directional track to ensure proper physical distancing.

Managing Artistic Director Kim Blackwell and Creative Director/Founder, Robert Winslow cannot wait to welcome vendors and guests alike while helping to provide both an opportunity for local purveyors to share their products and a form of social connectivity in an amazing outdoor setting.

“While we cannot welcome visitors to the farm in the traditional way,” says Blackwell “I hope you can join us and support local farmers and food vendors.”

Sponsored by longtime season sponsor, Nexicom, the Festival Friday Farmer’s Markets will include Black Honey, Bulls ‘N Things, Little Leaf Farms, Pastry Peddler, Thistles & Sticks, Taste of Russia, Codie and Kelsie’s Vegetable Patch, Hunnabees, 4th Line Theatre and Doo Doo’s Bakery.
