Bedtime Stories and Other Horrifying Tales:

On a dark fall night in 1835, 10-year-old Samuel Deyell goes into the night in search of his missing mother. Samuel is joined on his quest by his two best friends Eliza and Sarah. In the Shadows, the children encounter the darkest secrets and most horrifying facets of Millbrook and Cavan. The world premiere play by Kim Blackwell and Lindy Finlan is inspired by the images and creatures that fill children's nightmares and the devastating consequences of forbidden love. This play will guide audiences to various sites throughout the Winslow farm.

Other Volunteer Opportunities:

If the limelight does not interest you, 4th Line Theatre also needs people to assist our front of house staff to greet and seat the audience (and see the shows for free!), and we are always looking for volunteers to help backstage with makeup and hair, costumes, set and prop painting, running crew and other production tasks.
